РАЗРАБОТКА УРОКА АНГЛИЙСКОГО ЯЗЫКА В 9 КЛАССЕ НА ТЕМУ «ENGLISH EVERYWHERE: JAMAICA AND AUSTRALIA»

Аннотация: в данной статье представлен конспект урока английского языка в 9 классе по лингвострановедению. В работе отмечается, что представленный конспект знакомит учащихся с географическими особенностями, культурой и достопримечательностями англоговорящих стран. Каждый из учебных этапов детально расписан и предлагает разнообразный практический материал.

Ключевые слова: культура, текст, урок английского языка, аудио материал, видео материал, достопримечательности англоговорящих стран.

Тема: English everywhere: Jamaica and Australia

Цели урока:

– познавательный аспект – знакомство с географическими особенностями, культурой и достопримечательностями Ямайки и Австралии;

– развивающий аспект – развитие дедуктивного мышления, воображения, способности к распределению и переключению внимания, к сравнению и сопоставлению, к выявлению причинно-следственных связей во фразе, в тексте, к структурной антиципации;

– воспитательный аспект – воспитание потребности и способности понимать образ жизни других народов;

– учебный аспект – развитие навыков просмотрового и поискового чтения, словообразования и построения монологических единств с применением различного вида опор;

– сопутствующая задача – развитие умения читать с целью извлечения детальной информации (развитие умения понимать культурологический контекст аутентичных текстов).

Речевой материал:

– рецептивный: brethren, chilling, dubloon, fleet, to flourish, to loot, ashes, rough

– продуктивный: total area, total population, ethnic mix, capital, government, climate

Ход урока:

1. Организационный момент.

Звучит песня «Ямайка» в исполнении Робертино Лоретти.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pZtrFHwqnH8>

На доске представлены картинки, изображающие животных Австралии.

Учащиеся отвечают на следующие вопросы:

- 1) What countries are we going to speak about?
- 2) What do you know about them?
- 3) What unites these two countries?

2. Составление рекламы туристического агентства.

Учащиеся в группах составляют рекламу с целью привлечения туристов к посещению Ямайки и Австралии. Затем высказываются по очереди. Предлагается использовать Information files (стр.46, 102) и следующие фразы:

1) If you are interested in... (specific food, hot climate, beaches, history, rare animals, great hemisphere)

2) If you have never been to...

3) If you want to know more about...

4) If you want to be surprised by...

3. Чтение текстов страноведческого характера.

1) Работа с лексическими единицами по дефинициям (Word Bank с. 47)

2) Чтение текста с извлечением конкретной информации (у.3, 4,5 с. 47).

4. Просмотр видеоролика об Австралии.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Uc9I-wEH1BI>

При просмотре видеоматериала используется обучающая структура ZOOM-IN, помогающая более подробно и детально рассмотреть материал, останавливаясь и отвечая на вопросы для генерирования интереса к определенной теме.

После просмотра учащиеся отвечают на следующие вопросы:

Can you name 10 places of the top list in Australia?

Which of them would you like to visit and why? Give some reasons using the film material.

5. Просмотровое чтение текста о десятке лучших мест на Ямайке. (Приложение I)

В течение 5–7 минут учащиеся просматривают текст, затем выполняют следующие задания:

– расположи достопримечательности в порядке убывания (от более интересных до наименее интересных для тебя);

– выдели в тексте аргументы в поддержку своего выбора;

– выскажи свое мнение в группе.

Лидер группы из четырех человек опрашивает учащихся:

1) Which places do you like more (less) and why?

(Опросный лист-Приложение II)

Один из участников группы обобщает сказанное по речевому образцу:

– Looking at the table of our group, I can say:

First, (two) of us prefer... because...

Just... in our group would like to....

The reason is...

Then, none of us can imagine visiting... as tourist attraction because....

As for... it is (not) popular within our group. We consider it...

Speaking about... I would like to add that...

To sum up, tastes differ, nevertheless it is a good idea to visit Jamaica.

6. Подведение итогов урока. Объяснение домашнего задания.

В качестве домашнего задания учащимся следует составить рекламный буклет или лист: «Discover the best Jamaica and Australia attractions. »

Приложение 1

Jamaica the birthplace of reggae is one of the more popular Caribbean destinations welcoming approximately 2 million visitors each year. The island is appealing not just for its beautiful beaches, but also for its rich natural and people culture. Here are 10 attractions that visitors to the island should consider visiting.

1. Doctor's Cave Beach, Montego Bay

The Doctor's Cave beach gained fame in the early 1920s when news spread that the water possessed medicinal powers. Today, it remains one of the best beaches on the island, luring visitors from all over the world with its spectacular white sand and crystal blue waters. The beach is especially crowded when cruise ships visit and passengers flock to the location to soak in its reputed healing powers.

2. Rose Hall Great House, Montego Bay

The Rose Hall Great House is a restored plantation house built in 1770. It is the former home of the legendary Annie Palmer who earned the nickname, the White Witch of Rose Hall, due to tales that she lured several of her lovers to their death. The house, which is open for daily tours, is said to be haunted with her spirit to this day, and there have been several reports of ghost sightings over the years.

3. Rafting the Martha Brae River, Falmouth

Gliding on bamboo rafts on the serene Martha Brae River is one of the most popular tourist attractions in Jamaica. The journey takes visitors on a peaceful journey to explore the natural flora and fauna of the island, led by expert guides through some of the most breathtaking scenes of nature.

4. Blue Mountains and John Crow Mountains National Park, St. Andrew

At 2,256 meters, the Blue Mountain is Jamaica's highest peak and the home of the world famous Blue Mountain coffee. Nature lovers will enjoy these 200,000 acres of tropical rainforest, adorned with breathtaking mountain vistas, waterfalls, lush rainforests, and exotic plants and animals. More than 800 species of endemic plants and more than 200 species of birds can be found in the park, as well as the world's second largest butterfly.

5. Bob Marley Museum, Kingston

What is a visit to Jamaica without a Bob Marley experience? The former home of the reggae icon is located right in the heart of the capital city, Kingston. Open for visitors daily, the tour gives an insightful look into the life of the superstar before his death in 1981. It includes a visit to Marley's bedroom where bullet holes are visible from an assassination attempt, and his favorite star shaped guitar still lies undisturbed by the bed. The Tuff Gong Studio where he recorded some of his greatest hits and Marley's original record shop are also on the property. Visitors can purchase authentic Marley memorabilia on site.

6. Mystic Mountain, Ocho Rios

Mystic Mountain is the perfect attraction for adventure seekers. The Rainforest SkyExplorer takes visitors on a magical journey on a chairlift high above the trees to see spectacular views of Ocho Rios and the Caribbean coastline. Once at the top, visitors can take a thrilling ride down the mountain on the Bobsled, a single person roller coaster ride. Or you can crisscross through the forest on a heart-stopping zipline adventure.

7. Dunns River Falls, Ocho Rios

You really haven't experienced Jamaica unless you've climbed the Dunn's River Falls. This is one of Jamaica's most famous natural attractions, with its magnificent waterfalls crashing towards the sea. With the aid of a guide, visitors can climb all the way to the top, stopping to relax several refreshing pools. Visitors describe it as quite an invigorating experience, completed by a relaxing swim in the beach below.

8. Mayfield Falls & Mineral Springs, Hanover/Westmoreland border

It is less famous than Dunns River Falls, but the Mayfield Falls is just as exhilarating. Its secluded location makes it an excellent draw for nature lovers who can enjoy two beautiful waterfalls with natural pools, and an abundance of ferns, tropical flowers and rainforest flora. Expert guides lead you on a rejuvenating climb of the falls, after which a delicious Jamaican lunch awaits.

9. Dolphin Cove

The Dolphin Cove attractions have become so popular that you have to book way in advance to ensure that you have a space. Once there, you will enjoy a memorable dolphin experience including swimming and interacting up close with dolphins. There are many other things to do and see including watching shark feeding and stingrays, riding in glass bottom boats, and chatting with the parrots. Dolphin Cove has three locations in Ocho Rios, in Lucea near Negril, and at the Half Moon property in Montego Bay.

10. Appleton Estate Rum Tour, St. Elizabeth

Hidden on Jamaica's South Coast, the Appleton Estate Rum Tour gives an inside look at the process of making one of the world's finest rums. Visitors are taken on a historical journey, from the 18th century days of using donkeys to extract the juice from sugarcane to the modern Distillery and Aging House now in use. On display are the Copper Pot Stills that give the rum the distinctive character that is unique to Appleton. Visitors can also purchase the Appleton Estate Exclusive Jamaica Rum, a luxurious blend of rums which is sold only at the Estate and select travel retail outlets on island.
